

Educational goals of basic professional studies program of study Recreation are forming a modern, competent and independent organizers, recreation, skilled in all forms of practical activities in the field of recreation. He is a qualified yes, with success, to apply all the relevant technologies and methods, and the latest technological achievements in the field of recreation, fitness, animation, tourism and sport for all.

The program objectives are approaching the respective world trends, and introducing students to: issues of recreation, the necessary conditions for the realization of fitness and recreational activities, procedures, plans and programs in recreation and way of organizing various recreational activities. Based on the principles that govern the world of fitness in a manner that is appropriate animation and recreational activities in tourism, contribute to the development of Sport for All movement. Upon completion of this study program, students acquire the professional title The organizer of recreational sport in accordance with the Law on Higher Education and a List of professional titles, academic and scientific names.

Requirements for admission to this program of study prescribed by the Law on Higher Education, the Statutes of the Faculty of sports and physical education and special conditions of the Competition. Have the right to enroll persons who have completed a four secondary schools. Study program contains 23 compulsory (20 one-semester and 3 two-semester), 16 electives and a final project. The program is conducted in a manner characteristic of the study of physical education, sport and recreation. The courses are held in facilities of the Faculty, a part of teaching (practical exercises and practical work) is performed in clubs for recreation, fitness clubs, sports and recreational centers, sports schools, hotels, as well as other institutions and non-governmental organizations and associations with which the Faculty has agreed cooperation. In this study program through the acquisition of practical knowledge and skills is particularly emphasized education and training students to work independently.

Each semester is done in a professional practice of recreation clubs, fitness clubs, sports and recreation centers, sports schools, sports organizations and associations as well as for all other institutions with which the Faculty has agreed cooperation.

Program cycle study program lasts for three years (6 semesters) with a total of 180 points. Each item from the curriculum Recreation is reported the number of points, and the scope of the study expresses the sum of points. The sum of 60 ESPB points corresponding to the average total student engagement within the 40-hour working week during one school year and is distributed evenly to each semester can achieve 30 points. The final work on basic academic program of professional studies Recreation valued with 3 ESPB points. Prerequisites for registration of certain items have been defined with a minimum of actual exams on subjects from the previous semester.

Student of other Faculty or other high school can go on to study Recreation program of study under the conditions prescribed by applicable law, the Statutes and Regulations on the Regime and organization studies at the basic professional studies of the Faculty.